          C5      E5
It's early morning
          C5              E5  D5
The sun comes out
          C5              E5
Last night was shaking
          C5      D5
And pretty loud

My cat is purring      And scratches my skin
So what is wrong      With another sin
The bitch is hungry   She needs to tell
So give her inches   And feed her well
More days to come    New places to go
I've got to leave    It's time for a show

(with Riff A)

E5                  G5  A5  C5  D5              E5
Here I am,                  rock you like a hurricane
E5                  G5  A5  C5  D5              E5
Here I am,                  rock you like a hurricane

My body is burning      It starts to shout
Desire is coming      It breaks out loud
Lust is in cages      Till storm breaks loose
Just have to make it   With someone I choose
The night is calling   I have to go
The wolf is hungry    He runs the show
He's licking his lips  He's ready to win
On the hunt tonight   For love at first sting

Here I am, rock you like a hurricane
Here I am, rock you like a hurricane
Here I am, rock you like a hurricane
Here I am, rock you like a hurricane
